

Regarding the Islamic Republic's missile launches towards Israel!

In the early hours of Saturday, April 12th, the Islamic Republic launched hundreds of drones and missiles towards Israel in response to the Netanyahu government's attack on the diplomatic facilities of the regime in Syria. This escalation triggered widespread war propaganda across global media outlets, intensifying the atmosphere of insecurity and fear of the spread of devastating flames of a domestic war, impacting the lives of millions of oppressed masses, not only in Iran but throughout the Middle East region.

The leaders of the Islamic Republic referred to this missile operation as a "genuine promise," accompanied by a wave of deceptive government propaganda under the guise of a decisive and destructive response to Israeli aggressions. However, subsequent events showed that this "genuine promise," meaning "punishment" and a "striking response" to Israel, was as hollow and futile as all other promises of the Islamic Republic regime over the past 45 years, and in this case, even ludicrous and disgraceful. Following the announcement of this operation, it became evident that government officials, much like the so-called retaliatory operation against the killers of General Soleimani carried out by US forces, had informed US and, of course, Israeli authorities about their so-called "unprecedented" military operation and its objectives before the launch, thus introducing a new military innovation in the fields of "war against America and Israel." This disgrace was so significant that Israeli government officials, faced with a wave of questions and reports from Western newspapers regarding the statements of the Foreign Minister of the Islamic Republic, were forced to announce to "Al Arabiya" that they neither confirm nor deny that Iran "has informed us of the nature and timing of its response".

On the other hand, while government media cunningly played with the emotions of their audience by showcasing scenes of wildfires in Texas, USA, and other photoshopped products of their destruction of dozens of Israeli military centers, headquarters, and installations, it became apparent that the air forces of Israel, the United States, the United Kingdom, France, Jordan, and their allies had intercepted and downed 99 percent of the missiles and drones of the Islamic Republic, which had cost hundreds of millions of dollars from the hard-earned money of our people before reaching their targets. This "unprecedented operation" concluded without shedding any blood from the enemy's side. The leaders of the Islamic Republic also hastily announced a few hours later that, in their view, the issue of "revengeful attack" on Israel had come to an "end" in this showdown.

However, the main issue in this event is neither the hollow claims of the authorities nor their actions, nor the especially comedic aspects of this missile scattering, which have indeed sparked mockery and disgrace against the "military tactics" of the Islamic Republic in the public consciousness. Rather, the Islamic Republic's missile scattering in response to Israel's attack on its diplomatic offices in Syria occurs at a time when the Zionists ruling Israel, due to the genocide of the people of Gaza and the dimensions of its crimes, along with its imperialist supporters ranging from the United States and France to Britain and the European Union, are severely detested and isolated in the public opinion of the world, and under pressure. The pre-declared missile scattering by the Islamic Republic regime towards Israel serves to shift the despicable and child-killing face of the Zionists to the face of a victim and a target of injustice under the terrorism of the Islamic Republic. It provides a temporary yet new breathing space for all anti-people and anti-revolutionary global powers supporting the rulers of Israel, the murderers of the Palestinian people. Right after this ridiculous operation, the leaders of the Islamic Republic are seeking refuge behind the condemnation of the Islamic Republic's missile scattering, standing behind the Netanyahu government and condemning their own policies to preserve and support this occupying and murderous regime against the Palestinian people.

The ridiculous missile scattering by the Islamic Republic, a regime dependent on imperialism, also serves as another significant service to imperialist powers and the most fascist warmongering gatherings, which exploit any pretext to escalate insecurity, provoke crises, and spread war in order to perpetuate the momentum of their military and war monopolies. Now, the voices of these imperialist fascist forces resonate even louder than the mouths of Israeli Zionists and their counterparts in Tehran, the Islamic Republic, justifying the necessity of launching a full-scale war for plundering and paving the way for warmongering capitalists worldwide and promoting the trade of death under their control. Following this missile frenzy, a swift approval of a $14 billion aid package to Israel and promises of providing more weapons to this occupying and murderous regime have emerged in the U.S. Congress.

The Islamic Republic regime, this imperialist lapdog, has attempted to mend its disgraced and anti-revolutionary image by portraying itself as an "anti-imperialist" and "anti-Zionist" entity through showcasing missile scattering towards Israel and extensive global propaganda in this regard. It has tried to siphon off the energy and potential for freedom struggles and genuinely anti-imperialist movements worldwide, especially in the Middle East, under the deceitful banner of being "anti-American" and "anti-Israeli." However, despite all its antics of being "anti-Zionist" and "pro-Palestinian," this regime has failed to take any action to prevent the genocide of the people of Gaza. Now, by launching hundreds of missiles that never reached their targets and only turned into shrapnel, becoming a tool for showcasing Israel's "victory" and the victimhood of the criminal Netanyahu government, it cannot claim to defend the people of Gaza.

Without a doubt, the future, goals, and policies behind this missile scattering will become clearer and more apparent to everyone. Currently, the regime, deeply engulfed in crises and heavily detested by the masses for this act, is not only utilizing it for external purposes under the guise of waging war against the enemy but also domestically, to intensify suppression and oppression of the masses and their protest movements. However, one thing is clear: although the launched missiles were destroyed in the sky and did not reach the enemies of the Palestinian people, their destruction in the sky serves the advancement of the anti-revolutionary policies of imperialists, Zionists, and the imperialist-dependent regime of the Islamic Republic on the ground.
